Family Reunion on Andrew Mountain. Norfolk, Aug. 16 .- Work is being rapidly pushed on the Bridgeman house. The house occupies a commanding sight on Robbins avenue, and when completed will be the finest in town. The grounds which slope in to the west and south will be laid out under the supervision of Mr. Henshaw, a noted landscape gardener of Staten Island, who has gained a reputation by his work at Vassar col-The foundation of the new house which is of granite, is already completed and the marble stones are now being laid. The plans are by Cady, Berg & See. The house is to be a palatial two story basement and attic residence and will be erected by Contractor James Levy of this place. The materfal for the exterior will be marble, dimensions 66x120 feet. The specifications call for steam heat, electric wiring for lighting, also a gas plant, elevator, marble and the work, mahogany, pak and sycamore trim and Venetian blinds. The mansion will be fitted up with ranges, refrigerators, electric

BOUND FOR CAMP COFFIN.

Bridgeport, Aug. 16.-Builder James Burnes, whom the superior court declared sane on Wednesday, boarded a steamer bound for Niantic this morning to escape arrest. He assaulted his son-in-law, Conrad Stein, early this morning, beating him brutally because he implored his father-in-law not to give away his valuable gold watch. An offi cer subsequently found Burnes at the Atlantic hotel. The builder refused to accompany the officer without a warrant, and when the officer started back for it Burnes went down to the wharf and stepped aboard the excursion boat bound for Camp Coffin. It at his summer residence in Norfolk this is estimated that the structure will cost morning of septic fever. He had been alling for some time, but his malady had not been pronounced serious. Deceased was one of the best known lawyers in the state.

Judge Cole was about fifty years old. He was the legal adviser of ex-Governor Bulkeley during the holdover term. In 1872 he was a republican candidate for senator in the First district, and received a certificate of election, but the seat was successfully contested and awarded to Hon. Charles M. Pond. Since then Judge Cole has seldom entered the political field.

The date of the funeral has not yet been decided upon. Death was hastened by heart trouble. A widow, the daughter of the late Judge Huntington. of Hartford, and seven children survive him.

Bread Has Been Aptly Termed "The Staff of Life,"

And it is daily consumed by the Rich as well as the Poor. It is found on the able of the occupants of a palace, as well as in the humble cottage of the "sturdy sons of toil." When it is properly made it confers strength and health to the user. But much of "the commercial article" which is used by the masses s a "delusion and a snare," and, instead of producing a pleasurable feeling and nourishing the human frame, it causes a "bad taste in the mouth" and is conducive to "that tired feeling" which we read about in medical almanace

However does not come in this category. It is delicious to the nutritious and strengthening. Made by the original process from pure materials, it always agrees with all constitutions, and as a consequence it daily increases in popularity.

ROOT'S QUAKER BREAD is recommended by physicians generally, and thousands of loaves are bought and eaten each day in this city and neighboring towns. A single trial will attest its superiority. Be sure and get the genuine article. Ask your grocer for ROOTS QUAKER BREAD and take no other. Label on each loaf.
